

Solo Ansamblis

Sad dance. Experimental post-punk / electronic band based in Vilnius, Lithuania.

Solo Ansamblis quickly gained sympathies in Lithuanian music scene by music that combines rave and emotion shattering moods, electronic sounds with live instruments, analog synthesizers and digitally processed sound.

Moreover, bands audiovisual performances are consistent and inducing into unique and esthetically powerful Solo Ansamblis world. Atmosphere here is equally created by sound and light, scenography and smoke. All of it is united by meaningful band members' lyrics as well as music which unleashes body and sensibility, where you can dance as if nobody is watching. It invites for a trip within yourself, your mind and heart. The ever-growing audience named their style as 'sad dance'.

Their debut album "Roboxai" (2016) achieved great success and led the band to play in the main 2017's music festivals and events in Lithuania, warm-up such bands as Gus Gus, Röyksopp and She Past Away, to held few sold-out tours and earn best alternative bands award and 3 more nominations in the Lithuanian Music Awards 2016.
